Do you want to be a Student Ambassador?

Are you interested in being a voice for the students? We are looking for university students who are passionate about digital learning, keen to support their peers and develop their professional skills.

As a digital learning advocate, you can connect with students and instructors in their institution by sharing your first-hand experiences and best practices of using McGraw Hill digital products.

By working closely with McGraw Hill staff, you can gain real-world experience and professional development skills to educate faculty and their students on the benefits of implementing and utilising digital learning tools to improve academic outcomes.
